

From The South or East

Travel from Ross-on-Wye and follow the A49 towards Hereford. Continue on this road through Harewood End and Much Birch, after a straight and at the top of Callow Hill you will see a turn on your right for Kings Thorn, immediately after that there is a left turn to Callow which you need to take. Follow this road until you come to a T-junction where the road meets the A465. You need to turn left here towards Abergavenny and then take the 2nd right unto the B4349 to Hay-on-Wye. Continue to follow this road (don't turn off to Kingstone) through Clehonger and to Madley. In the village of Madley you will see the Church on your left and then the Red Lion pub on your right, take the next right (signposted Bridge Sollars). The cottage is 2nd driveway on your left about half a mile from Madley.
